Sequence Diagram

This diagram shows the sequential behaviours of administrator, visitor and the modules server. Administrator can add new questionnaire modules, these questions can be seen by the visitors, who can answer the questions to assess their situation. After they finish each survey, they can get the corresponding recommendation action plans which can help them to get help and improve their unhealthy relationship. Administrators can both add and edit as well as remove survey modules, sections, and questions as their researches need.
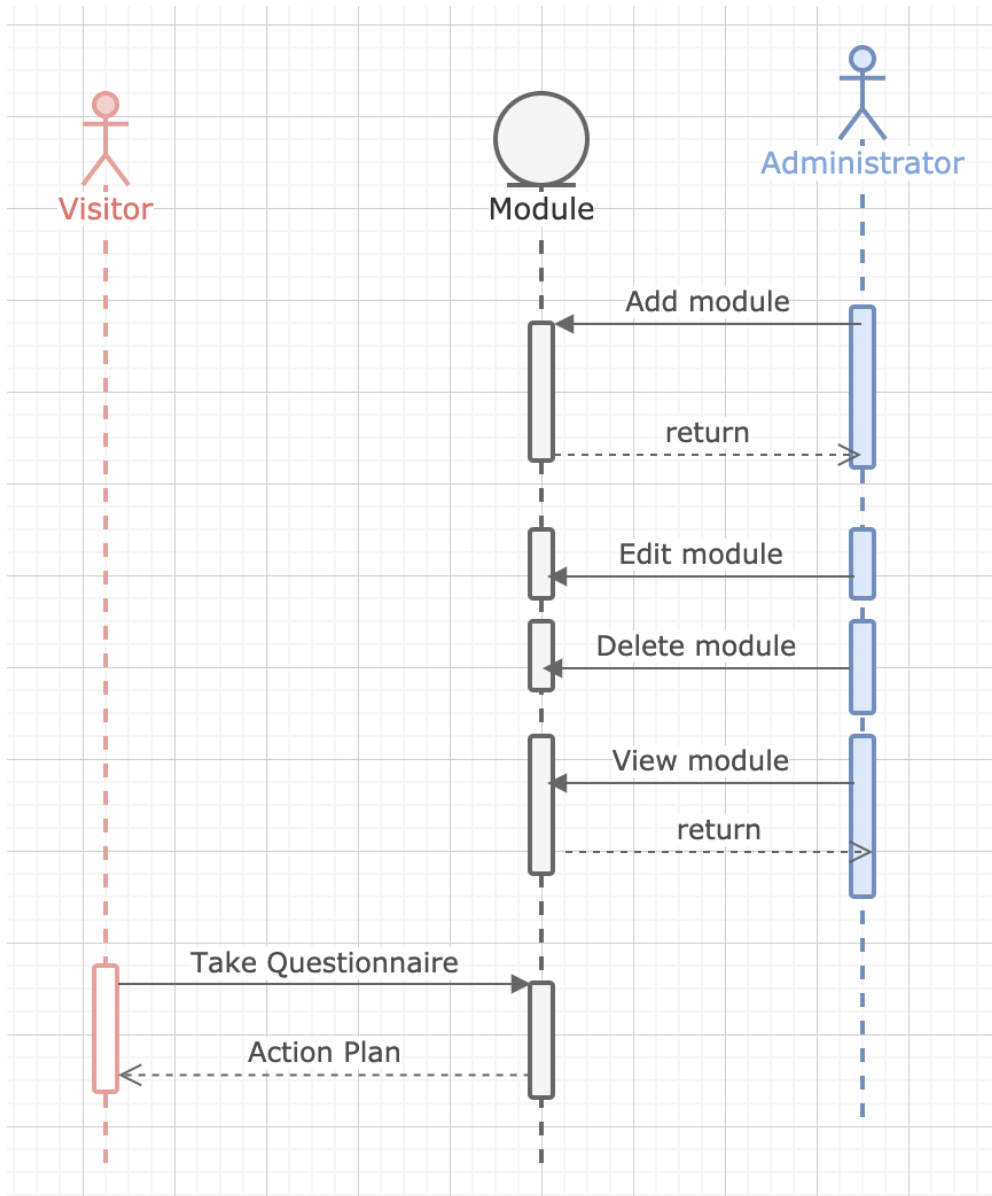

Diagram editable file: